Swag (t-shirts, glasses, etc.)?	Yes	On-Premise Festival	Yes, 45 days per year	NOTES All Spirits must be poured by a licensed bartender. *If you want to be an Artisan Distiller in Indiana, which affords to the ability to to sell directly to the consumer at your premise, one of the major restrictions is that you need to have a distilling permit, or brewery, or winery permit for eighteen months before you can sell directly to the consumer. If you've been a brewery for longer than eighteen months you can immediately start a distillery and sell to the consumer. If you are just starting a distillery you can start the distillery and start selling through distribution (both in state and out of state) for eighteen months then you can apply for the Artisan Distiller's permit and start selling to the consumer. An artisan distiller may blend liquor that the artisan distiller obtains from another manufacturer with liquor that the artisan distiller manufactures. The artisan distiller may sell the blended liquor as liquor that the artisan distiller manufactures only if the final product contains at least sixty percent (60%) of liquor that was fermented and distilled from raw materials by the artisan distiller at the licensed premises of the artisan distiller (you can't buy sourced whiskey and sell it on site. You have to ferment and distill at least 60% of the spirit).
